Hi, Gaurav!

EDIT MODE

IMPORTANT! Please read before moving forward!/dashboard/my_documents1. Have you read our Author Instructions (/author_guide#!/author-instructions/submitting-an-article)?

Please ensure you have read these instructions before starting your submission! We expect all submissions to studiously adhere to our formatting requirements. Articles with too many errors will either be rejected or require the purchase of our Preferred Editing service.

2. Do not write your article on the Cureus website!

Please write and format your article offline before starting your submission.

3. Know your responsibilities as the submitting author:

- Only the submitting author can edit the article, author names and affiliations.
- If you are submitting on behalf of an author you must sign in with the author's account before continuing.

4. We do not accept the following article submissions:

- Surveys of medical students or residents
- Articles on medical student, resident or physician burnout
- KAP (knowledge, attitude and practices) surveys lacking a clear scientific impact
- Mini-reviews (Only comprehensive reviews will be considered.)
- COVID-19 editorials

Thanks for choosing to publish with Cureus!
